I desire thou not to fall but send to morrow I thank white hush things as I have writ for & for the best of the it is all gone & I have of myself that they shall have more to morrow full not to send to morrow & some things but one & I know & what else thou think, I think is much what all you let, here by Margaret this daye how you all do no more but that I thank you R P
